Trying to Organize a Paper Mill Trust —Chances Less Favorable than Two Month Ago.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 13.—A dozen merchants and an equal number of railroad officials and committees representing various associations and ticket brokers will appear before the railroad committee of the house at Washington on the seventeenth to decide the fate of ticket scalping in the United States. A bill similar to the law in this State is being considered. It is expected that Chauncey Depew and other officials of the New York Central will head the delegation.

MILL INTERESTS MEETS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Boston, Dec. 13.—It is announced that another meeting of the committee which has charge of the project to invite the news paper mill interest will be held this week. It is thought that the chances of consolidation are not as favorable as they were two months ago. Business has improved, most of the mills are well supplied with orders and do not feel the necessity of the combine.

AT CENTENARY.

Large Congregations and Two Excellent Sermons Yesterday.

The services at Centenary church yesterday were attended by unusually large congregations and Pastor Gav preached two excellent sermons. The morning sermon was particularly appropriate and timely. He talked sound sense about the growing evil of fashion, which is working incalculable damage to the course of Christianity. It is placed by many people, ahead of everything else.

The pastor didn't use exactly the language used here but one idea advanced was that so many people are in the habit of criticising the different costumes worn that people who are not able to dress as fine as some of their neighbors, have become sensitive and stay away from the church.

This is true, shamefully true, and there is no indication of relenting on the part of fashion monster. Besides making it hard, unpleasant and often impossible for poor people to go to church and enjoy the full benefits of the sanctuary, the heartless monster sweeps away fortunes, wrecks happy homes and turns honest men into criminals.

The sermon at night was on the subject of "Why you ought to be a Christian," and was listened to by an appreciative congregation. Those who attended Centenary yesterday were entertained and instructed. All seemed to be glad they were there and a general feeling of good fellowship prevailed. Several strangers in the city were present and one of them told the writer he enjoyed being there, it was homelike, and he especially enjoyed the singing.

Greensboro churches are noted for their hospitality and Centenary is not an exception. Yesterday was a beautiful day and we learn that services at the other churches were largely attended.

A New Opera House.

A Telegram man was shown a rough draft of a plan for a new opera house which will be a beauty if it materializes as we hope it will. The plan would give an opera house large enough to be used as a hall for conventions and meetings of various kinds when a good seating capacity would be required.

With our hotel and railway advantages Greensboro would become the convention city of the state. It is not a certainty that the structure will be built, the project should be encouraged.

Court Proceedings.

The greater part of the day was consumed in trial of whiskey stealing case. The jury is out as we go to press. The criminal docket is finished.

"THE LAST LOAF."

Presented Saturday Night—Junior Exhibition Thursday Night.

A Telegram representative witnessed the presentation Saturday night at Guilford College, of "The Last Loaf." The entertainment was given by the "Home Sunday School" for the purpose of raising funds for the Sunday School library, and quite a handsome sum was realized.

While the performers were amateurs, each member on the program did admirably, receiving many well earned encores. All present enjoyed "The Last Loaf" immensely, notwithstanding its state of "petrification." Following program was carried out:

Mark Ashton.....Loy Morris
Mrs. Kate Ashton.....Jennie Russell
Lilly Ashton, their daughter.....
Pattie Jones, servant.....
Bertha Edgerton
Caleb Hanson, baker.....Lacey Barbee
Harry Hanson, his son.....Lloyd Moore

Prof. White tells us the new Memorial Hall is now completed, with the exception of seating it. This will be done in time to hold commencement exercises in the new quarters. This is a handsome brick building, with a seating capacity of 800 people.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

Encouraging Showing of Missions and Schools.

The report of committee on state missions was read by Rev. L. R. Pruett.
The report showed that more than 1,344 souls were baptized into the church during the year.

The following recommendations were made:

First. That a cash collection of $350 be taken to meet the deficiency.

Second. That the board operate on a basis of $16,000 per year, $1,000 increase over last year.

Third. That the local pastors do more work in their localities in this sphere of missions.

Rev. Mr. Pruett presented in an attractive manner the importance of state missions.

Rev. H. A. Brown, in a humorous and unique way, outlined the qualifications necessary for a mission worker, and urged that more interest be taken in the work of the country missionary by the city and town pastors.

More frequent and larger collections should be taken for the missionaries.

The annual report of Wake Forest college was submitted to the convention by Rev. J. B. Boone and showed that the past year was the most prosperous in its history, 261 students being enrolled during the session of 1896 and 1897.

Dr. E. W. Sikes, of Union county, was yesterday elected professor of history and economics, a chair which has just been established for Wake Forest.

President Chas. E. Taylor, Rev. Dr.
T. E. Skinner and Dr. E. W. Sikes spoke words of force and power and ably presented the claims and advantages of Wake Forest.

Greenville, N. C., was unanimously selected as the place for meeting next year, and Rev. W. S. Penick, of Elizabeth City, was selected to deliver the introductory sermon and Rev. J.
Q. Adams as alternate.—Raleigh Post.

END OF THE BICYCLE RACE.

Prizes Were Distributed to The Winners Today.

WEYLER'S LIP WAGGING AWAY.

Boarding House Keeper Robbed at University of Virginia—Havana Tobacco Coming in Again.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 13.—All the riders who took part in the six days race, with the exception of Hale who went to Gardiner, Massachusetts, were at the Barcloldi hotel this morning at the invitation of the managers, Powers and Kennedy to receive their prizes. They were surrounded by admiring bicycle enthusiasts who cheered heartily. The room the managers used was the same the Bryan campaign committee used and where Fitzsimmons held a reception after defeating Corbett. All of the riders said they felt in good condition. Miller the winner, was looking best. Miller will receive two hundred dollars from the League of American Wheelmen for breaking the record, so soon as the exact figures are known.

The track was between 250 and 300 feet short. After the proper deductions have been made the figures will be given.

WEYLER'S VIEW OF IT.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Dec. 13.—Weyler declared in an interview today the Spanish government would find means to avenge the insults contained in McKinley's message as well as threats of intervention.

ROBBED JOHN CAMPBELL.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 13.—John Campbell, proprietor of a University of Virginia boarding house, was chlo-formed in his room last night and robbed of $240. The robbers tied him hands and feet to the bed. When discovered he was unconscious. There is no clue.

H AVANA TOBACCO IMPORTED.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 13.—The Ward line steamer Orizaba which arrived today from Havana brought three hundred and thirty one bales of tobacco, being the first shipment of tobacco from that port in many months.

Mrs. Luetgert Found Again.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 12.—There is a woman in this city today who has been identified as the missing Mrs.
Luetgert. Last night about midnight the woman got off from a Painesville suburban car.

The Painesville authorities reported this morning to the Cleveland authorities that a woman answering Mrs.
Luetgert's description was at large in Cleveland.

It Was a Mistake.

We are requested to state that our esteemed contemporary, The Daily Record, was mistaken in saying that no minister had called to see Ryan since he was convicted and sentenced.
He had been visited by some of the ministers here.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor
Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Dec. 13, '97.

There was quite a lively scrap at the bowling alley Saturday night. Beamer Crouch and John Holdbrook got into a dispute over a cigarette stump and their words were followed by blows. But by prompt action of cooler heads the affray was stopped and peace restored.

Postmaster, R. C. Charles and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mack of Mo., who has been visiting him, spent Sunday in Winston.

Tom Ingram, of Norwood, is visiting his brother, our townsman L. J.
Ingram.

T. F. Ragan, of the original racket store of Greensboro, spent Sunday at his homestead near this place.

S. L. Davis, the traveling salesman for the Eagle Furniture Company of this place, spent Sunday at home.

The Snow Lumber Co., shipped twenty-seven car loads of lumber last week.

C. H. Doozee is painting a handsome sign for A. V. Sapp & Co.

Miss Ritch, of Massachusetts, has come back to High Point to spend the winter for her health. She has a room at Mrs. Perry's on Washington street.

W. M. Nissen, of Salem, is spending a few days with his sister Mrs. R. C.
Charles.

Rev. J. H. Williams, of Madison, preached two excellent sermons yesterday in St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Half-dozen or more of our wheelmen went out to W. G. Brokaws farm.
Two fell by the way-side on account of broken wheels.

E. D. Steel left this morning on No.
12 for the north on business.

C. A. Barbee is in Greensboro today on business.

W. J. Armfield, Jr., cashier of the Bank of Randolph at Asheboro, spent Sunday at home.

Prof. O. W. Carr returned to Greensboro today.

D. L. Clark is spending the day in Greensboro.

Will Richardson returned to his post of duty this morning in Greensboro.

J. M. Millikan, U. S. Marshall, passed through enroute to Greensboro today.

Messrs. R. R. Little and E. P.
Wharton, of the Sun Stock Mutual Insurance Co., are in the city today.

RYAN IS HOPEFUL.

He Sends The Editor a Letter Speaking of His Future.

Sir:—Upon your last visit to my cell you asked me if I intended making any preparation for the future, for eternity.
In the state of mind I was in then I could give you no definite answer. Believing I had sent my wife into eternity unprepared and she was lost, I could not ask God's pardon for my awful sin besides having a consuming desire to spend eternity with her, even should it be in the regions of despair. But I thank God that I am now fully satisfied that she is not lost—that she is yet in the bounds of God's love and pardon.
I have become convinced of this certainty by reading the glorious doctrine of purgatory as taught by the Catholic church.

After becoming so convinced I went down on my knees in prayer to God for forgiveness, for pardon for my horrible sins and I am happy to tell you, sir, that I have the assurance that his forgiving love reaches and embraces me, even me and that far beyond the sky in the realms of light and love I shall eventually find my wife again, again I shall hear the voice of childhood and feel the pressure of baby hands. God is love.
Respectfully,
R. S. RYAN.

FUNERAL OF MRS. M'KINLEY

Part of the Cabinet Detained at Washington—Messages of Condolence

Still Pouring In.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Official confirmation reached here today of the recognition of a new Haytian cabinet.

The advice show that the feeling of resentment against the United States is very bitter because the United States did not intervene to prevent the humiliation of Hayti at the hands of Germany. A material injury to our interests is feared. The new cabinet is expected to be entirely anti-American in sentiment. The Marblehead has been instructed to stay at Port-au-Prince. Unfavorable developments are feared.

GOING TO CANTON.

SIX JAIL BIRDS

Tried to Creep Through One Hole in the Ceiling.

Six prisoners, Will Osborne, Bob Gray, Tom Kirkman, J. F. Marshall, Charles Robertson, and a man named Johns, all confined in one cell, attempted to break jail yesterday evening. These guests were in the Southern wing of our palatial jail. Formerly some prisoners had cut a hole through the ceiling and had departed without making their adieus to the host. Kirkman, from long experience, knew the inside of the jail as a rabbit does his burrow and pointed out the spot on the ceiling where the former breach had been made. By the aid of a broom stick the half dozen worthies prized off a plank from the side of the cell and were going "into the breach, dear friends, once more" with a vigor born of the craving for sweet liberty and the residue of that stolen joy juice that got them into trouble. One of the guards, however, heard the rumpus and interfered with their kindly intentions. They spent the night anchored in pairs and no further attempt was made.

ABOUT GREENSBORO.

The Board of Aldermen have decided to submit to the voters of the city the question of extending the sewerage system. Apropos of this it is worth while to take a few things into consideration.

It will of course entail an increased indebtedness but it is a well known fact that every growing city is in debt. It cannot be otherwise because the constantly recurring necessity for extending water, sewerage and lighting systems, where such systems are under municipal control, demands an outlay greater than the current revenue. No one need be frightened therefore by the necessity for an increased outlay. It is as natural as the appetite of a growing boy.

There is another thing that should be kept constantly before our citizens: the growth of the city must not be checked either by public or private stinginess. Such a course is poor pride and poorer business. Every additional business means an appreciation of property values.

Take any one of our streets. Every house built at the end of such a street raises property values all along it to the heart of the city. One house may not make a great deal of difference but a dozen will. The dozen will be built only when city advantages are to be had. The increase in property values will cover the increase in taxes many times over.

The city is at present not deeply in debt as compared with other cities. It can very well afford the additional expenditure.

The additional expenditure is merely an investment. It is an outlay that will bring large returns.

Greensboro is having a growth just now that is most gratifying. Encourage it. It is with every town largely a choice between going forward and going backward. Growth goes by a cumulative process. The more a town grows the more anxious outsiders are to become citizens, to invest their money in its property, to throw their brains and their energies into its enterprises.

North Carolina has no large cities. In New York or Pennsylvania they would be villages only. But it will have cities by and by. Which of its growing towns is to be the great cities? Which one is to become paramount, predominant?

It is well known that the growth of one town tends to stunt the growth of other towns near it. It casts them into the shade, draws their life-blood into itself. To allow any other nearby town to outstrip Greensboro is to commit civic suicide.

And the present is the crucial time. The Telegram has great faith in the future of Greensboro. It would urge that the most be made of present opportunity. Don't cramp the city's growth.

Greensboro, Durham, Winston-Salem—which of these is to outstrip finally? The one that does will overshadow the others. We are also near enough to Danville and Charlotte to have their growth draw from us.

There is a bright future for some town in this good old piedmont section. Even our neighbors will admit that we have the advantage naturally. Let us use it to the utmost, now and always.

The first number of Concord's new afternoon paper "The Journal" is at hand. It is bright and newsworthy and with a good advertising patronage for a beginner. Jake F. Newell is editor and Harry P. Deaton is associate editor.

THE BATTLE OF THE BOOTH.

Commander Ballington Booth of the American volunteers has received a letter from his father Gen. William Booth, of the Salvation Army, asking for an interview so soon as the latter can tear himself away from "Darkest England." Ballington has signified that he will be pleased to see him as a father but not as a representative of the Salvation Army.

It is well known that for eighteen months the American volunteers and the Salvation Army have waged sonorous battle. There have been rival tootings and drum beatings and thumping of tom-toms; shout has met shout in deadly conflict and aerial grapple; Psalms have been entertained with Psalms in the dreadful struggle for supremacy.

It was the benevolent purpose of General William Booth to bring along a quantity of soft soldier with which to unify salvationists and volunteers but Commander Ballington Booth declares that the breach is unglueable. The volunteers will none of the salvationists.

All this is very well well for volunteers and salvationists perhaps but how about the people who would fain sleep eight hours at night? They would, we are inclined to think, like to see the Booth family once more at peace with itself and all the world.

The Telegram receives with pleasure the kind words of the Elizabeth City Economist. They come to us even as the commendation of an old veteran, scarred in many victories, to the young soldier after his first battle.

Germany has bluffed England and the United States, scared Hayti out of its boots and stolen a wad of China but when it ran up against the Standard Oil trust it hoisted a white feather big as a peacock's tail.

There is no use being excited over the million dollar post office steal admitted by the Washington authorities. There is a fifty million dollar pension steal that is repeated annually.

Labor commissioner Hamrick is completing the chapter on fish in his annual report. The section on suckers will be especially full.

Mr. Cleveland in his duck chasing doubtless thinks with a few deep brown regrets of the government lighthouse tenders of other days.

Mr. Marcus A. Hanna continues to manifest a proprietary pride in the President's message.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Daily $5 a Year—Weekly 50 Cents a year.

The Weekly Journal is a large paper, containing ten pages of seven columns each. It is filled with the Latest News of the day, both domestic and foreign. Owing its own leased telegraphic wires, which are used for no other purpose but to bring the latest news to its editorial rooms, The Journal is prepared to get all the news up to the latest moment.

In addition to the news, it contains more special features than any other southern weekly. Among other things it has a weekly letter or sermon from Rev. Sam Jones, a contribution from Hon. John Temple Graves, letters of travel, biographies of distinguished men, and many other attractive features.

The Weekly Journal is beautifully illustrated by its own artist. In fact neither energy nor money is spared to make it the Great Southern Weekly: CALENDAR FREE.

And the price is only Fifty Cents a Year. To every subscriber sending fifty cents for a year's subscription and a two-cent postage stamp extra (to pay postage) a beautiful lithographed calendar for 1898 will be sent free. Specimen copies free.

Col. F. H. Fries, of Salem, came down on the noon train and went north.

There is some new reading matter in Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud's space today.

W. C. G. Bell, of the late firm of Bell & McKnight, Winston, was in the city this morning.

Read what Alderman, the photographer, has to say in his ad today about hand cameras.

Contractor W. B. Beacham went up to Wilkesboro this morning to complete some buildings there.

B. W. Cornelison, representing The Paris Medicine Company, of St. Louis, is in the city this afternoon.

Dr. T. N. Ivey, will conduct the Epworth League services at Centenary Methodist church this evening.

The trade will be supplied by the Merchants Grocery Co. for Johnson's Sarsaparilla. See ad in this paper.

North Davis street is receiving the attention of the road scraper today. It needed attention after the recent rains.

Lindau in his price slaughtering ad offers raisins and candy at exceptionally tempting prices. See second page.

Have you read that big ad of Lindau's? It contains some very interesting matter for those who have goods to buy.

Wharton Bros. enlarge their space in The Telegram today to tell about their line of goods for Christmas presents.

It is sometimes a difficult matter to select Christmas presents. Read the new ad of Richardson & Fariss in this paper.

Rev. S. D. Stamey and wife, of Jamestown circuit, spent last night in the city at the home of Dr. E. L. Stamey.

W. A. Sloan, the hustling and clever representative of the Asheville Furniture company, spent yesterday in the city.

Mrs. Kinney, of Raleigh, a sister of Mr. B. H. Merrimon, who has been visiting at "The Cedars," returned home today.

Shem Merideth, of J. L. Ludlow's engineering corps, arrived in the city last night from Huntsville, Ala., and went up to Winston today.

Mrs. Alonzo, nee Miss Stewart, arrived on the vestibule yesterday from New York and is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stewart.

The McAdoo Building on East Market where the Art Exhibit was held is being fitted up preparatory to the Ladies' Bazaar which begins there this week.

J. G. Foushee spent Sunday here with his family, and went to Glendon. He was accompanied by two gentlemen who go to Moore county to try their luck shooting birds.

Dr. T. N. Ivey, in the absence of Pastor Johnson, filled the pulpit of the Baptist yesterday morning and night. Dr. Ivey's powers as pulpit orator are well known, and he delighted his hearers as usual.

Dr. E. L. Stamey was called to Oak Ridge today to see Miss Lizzie Lancaster, who is sick. Miss Lancaster has many friends here who will hope for her a speedy recovery. The doctor will not return until tomorrow.

The Steam Laundry requests that all who desire to have laundry work done before Christmas bring or send it in before noon on Wednesday the 22. No work will be received later than noon of that date. Look for new ad tomorrow.

Our High Point Bureau is now in charge of Mr. Claude C. Barbee, of that city, who will furnish news items and solicit business for The Telegram in High Point and vicinity. Any courtesy extended him by patrons and friends of the paper will be appreciated by the management.

A gentleman advertised in The Telegram for a position as book-keeper and the next night received an answer and made a contract. He lost no time and it was only a penny ad, but it brought quick results. The Telegram is read by a large number of people and the list is steadily growing.

CONCERT TONIGHT.

A Treat in Store for Music Lovers at the Academy.

The Frances Hughes Concert Company will give a performance at the Academy tonight. They arrived Saturday night and are stopping at the Benbow.

The company needs no commendation here as it has only been two weeks since their performance at the Normal College. Since that time they have delighted the most cultured audiences to be found in the various towns of the State. Seats are selling rapidly and the indications are that they will have a full house tonight which is very gratifying as no company deserves it more strongly. Seats on sale at the usual places.

A Heap of Coal

that is burned in this country is but half coal and half dirt and slate. If your coal doesn't burn down to a good clean csh—if it clinkers and clogs your grate, there is something wrong about it.

There is no need of burning that kind of coal. We are ready to sell you "coal that's all coal." We give you a dollar's worth of fire for every dollar you pay us. May we have your order? Phone Number 8.

Our Prescription Business

Is Growing Very Fast.

WHY?

Because we use only the Purest Drugs and Chemicals in filling them, and employ Experienced Pharmacists only behind our counter—two requisites necessary to insure accuracy and guard against any possibility of mistakes. Physicians and the public generally are finding this out, hence the large increase in our prescription file. Remember the place.

Shoe Selection

Is Easy Here,

The style you want, the durability you want and the price you can afford to pay are all considered and provided before you come. Its wonderful how good a shoe a very little money will buy now. That's because inventive genius and enterprise have made shoe making an exact science. The making of a pair of shoes today is about as simple a matter as when the first shoemaker wove his sandals of papyrus on the banks of the Nile. Modern methods make possible the wonderful shoe bargains we have prepared for you.

Our $1.75 and $2.00 lines of Ladies' Shoes are now complete. We can fit any foot in this line and guarantee satisfaction to our customers.
